VOLUNTEER NEWS AND UPDATES

Happy Thanksgiving!

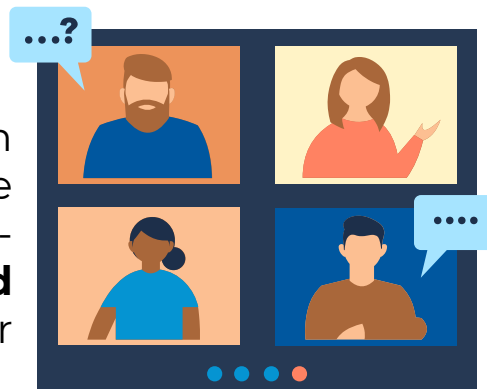

This year and every year, we're thankful for YOU! Without our amazing volunteers, the work we do would not be possible. Many thanks for all of your hard work and for your dedication to our organization.

New Volunteer Info Sessions

Calling all first-time volunteers! Beginning in December, the CWF Volunteer Department will be hosting virtual New Volunteer Info Sessions. These 45-minute sessions will give an overview of the ins and outs of volunteering with us, from the various volunteer roles available to how to get started with training.

2025 Volunteer Tax Trainings

Trainings for the IRS Volunteer Certification exams (required for all VITA Volunteers) will take place in January 2025. In-person classes will take place at Temple University, with virtual live webinar classes available as well.

Full class schedule and registration will be available on CWF's Volunteer Portal in mid-December. We will send out an email once its posted, so stay on the lookout!

Meet Campy at CWFPhilly.org

We're excited to introduce Campy, the newest member of our team! Campy is our AI assistant, designed to provide quick and reliable answers to your questions. Whether you're seeking information about our free services or our volunteer opportunities, Campy is here to help.

Campy is available 24/7 on our website, ready to assist you with any inquiries you might have. We believe that Campy will enhance your experience by providing timely and accurate information, making it easier for you to access the resources and support you need.

We invite you to visit our website and give Campy a try. Visit our website and meet Campy today! We look forward to hearing your feedback and continuing to improve our services to better serve you and our community.

STAFF SPOTLIGHT

SAMUEL UJOR Staff Accountant

Samuel joined the CWF team in June 2024 and works alongside our Director of Finance to manage and plan all financial aspects of the organization.

What did you do prior to coming to CWF?

Prior to working at CWF, I worked for fifteen years as a Financial Analyst for a non-profit called The Advanced Devereux Behavioral Health Foundation. I also worked as an auditor for five years in Liberia. I received a Bachelor's of Business Administration from the University of Liberia and a Masters in Accounting from Strayer University.

What exactly does the Staff Accountant do?

As the Staff Accountant, my role includes preparation of financial statements, processing payroll and benefits, and handling invoices and prompt payment of vendors.

What is your favorite thing about working here?

My favorite thing about working at CWF is being part of an organization that empowers individuals financially and helps them to reach their full economic potential.
