VOLUNTEER NEWS AND UPDATES

Wow, what a busy first week of tax season! A huge thank you to everyone who volunteered and helped make it such a success. The returns are still coming in, and we need your help to keep things rolling! Please sign up for a shift today—we're especially in need of volunteers at the following sites:

HQ (North Philly)

Dixon House (South Philly)

The Campaign Against Hunger (Brooklyn)

Castle Hill Library (The Bronx)

Don't Forget to Log Your Hours!

Don't let your hard work go unnoticed! Remember to log your volunteer hours for each shift you serve. You can do so a couple of ways:

- Clock in & out on the blue tablet at your tax site
- Check in for your shift via the email you'll automatically receive a few hours prior to any shift you've signed up for (no need to check out, it will automatically add the length of the shift to your hours!)
- Log onto the CWF Volunteer Portal after your shift and manually enter your hours

VOLUNTEER OF THE MONTH

Miles McWilliams, a junior at Germantown Friends School, joined our volunteer team in January. Since then, he has become an invaluable member of our team, playing a key role in organizing, inventorying, and packing tax site supplies. This includes preparing laptops and assisting with large deliveries to keep operations running smoothly.

Once tax season began, Miles earned his Basic Certification and took on an even greater role, preparing tax returns and assisting with intake duties at Headquarters. Miles says "It has been a great experience getting to work with everyone and learning how to do the job of helping people with their taxes."

Tax Manager Monica Pierson shares, "Miles consistently goes above and beyond to ensure everything runs smoothly. His positive attitude and enthusiasm are contagious, and he has made a significant impact on our office."

Operations Coordinator Sharon Jefferson adds, "Miles is excellent! He is the epitome of a volunteer."

Thank you, Miles, for your dedication and hard work!
