

The CWF VITAmix

Thank you to everyone who attended the Volunteer and Staff Appreciation Event on Saturday, May 4th. Here are the volunteers and staff who were acknowledged for going above and beyond this past tax season!

VOLUNTEER EVENT RECAP

PRESIDENT'S AWARD:

For Demonstrated excellence in volunteer leadership and commitment

Jerry Birenz took on the challenge of becoming a quality reviewer, showing meticulous attention to detail and a passion for accuracy in tax returns. He actively contributes to enhancing the virtual volunteer experience by providing valuable feedback and suggestions. Jerry has volunteered with CWF since 2022, logging 79 hours this tax season alone.

JERRY BIRENZ

OUTSTANDING COLLEGE STUDENT:

Ravin Tomlinson played a vital role in our virtual team this tax season. Despite being a first-time volunteer with CWF, she bravely stepped up as a quality reviewer. Ravin logged an impressive 518 hours, the highest among all volunteers this season. From Waco, Texas, she is currently studying Accounting at the University of Arizona (Global Campus).
